

19th IAHPE Conference

21-24

September
2023

Thessaloniki
Greece

2nd Call for papers

Deadline on
31 May 2023

Capitalism, Pandemics and Public Health

Submissions for papers' presentations are now open. To submit the abstract for the 19th IAHPE Conference please fill the form at shorturl.at/lsAD3 or use the QR code below.

As it was elaborated in the first call, the 19th IAHPE conference will focus on looking forward to preparing for future public health challenges, addressing the following themes, but not exclusively:

- Health care inequities and the struggle for health.
- Planetary health, climate change and health.
- War and conflict and health.
- Migration, forced migration and public health.
- Universal health care and health services' privatization.
- Access and distribution of vaccines and pharmaceuticals.
- Academic freedom and commodification of public health education.
- Lessons from the COVID-19 pandemic and public health preparedness.
- Challenges and opportunities for public health.
- Social movements, solidarity, and public health activism.

We welcome any submission falling in one or more of the above themes. The programme of the conference will include keynote speakers, panel discussions, and papers' presentations. Keynote sessions and panel discussions will stress on the main topics of the conference with the help of invited speakers.

Submissions for papers' presentations are now open.

The papers' presentations will be allocated in oral and posters' presentations, both having equal academic recognition as presentations in the Conference. We welcome any submission falling in one or more of the above themes. To submit the abstract for the 19th IAHPE Conference please fill the form here or use the QR code below. The main body of the abstract should be no longer than 500 words and following the Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion structure. Upon submission, please provide the name, contact, and affiliation of the presenting author, as well as the title and general theme of the presentation.

Abstract submission deadline:
31 May 2023

In due time you will receive the decision of the peer review committee regarding the admission of your presentation and in case of positive answer its allocation in oral or poster presentation.

Fees: Participants with full time job and salary: 50€. Unemployed, precarious workers, students: free of charge.

For any query, please contact the committee at iahp.online@gmail.com

